PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Associate Director of Cooperative Extension, University of Nevada Reno, August 2019 – present

Responsibilities include:

- Provide primary support for the Associate Dean and Director.
- In absence of the Director, or at the Director's direction, provide overall administrative leadership for Cooperative Extension.
- Serve as the state program contact for all Agriculture, Natural Resources and some Nutrition subject areas, provide leadership for effective programming, respond to regional and national inquiries and requests for reports, represent views of the state at various meetings, conferences and other gatherings, and communicate program information to and from faculty and staff.
- Gather and compile data for federal, state, university and other reports, and develop/maintain online reporting systems to generate data necessary for required reporting.
- Provide advice to the Director on a wide variety of subjects such as policies, programs, and planning.
- Develop competencies and opportunities for increased acquisition of external and federal competitive funds for the development of programming that meets identified needs.
- Identify and encourage opportunities where faculty can increase and enhance programming efforts by working with colleagues on campus, across county, area and state boundaries and in which Cooperative Extension programming and research can be joined in collaborative efforts.
- Coordinate new faculty orientation and other UNCE professional development training as appropriate.
- Represent the Director at local, university, regional or national levels as necessary.
- Respond to questions and inquiries from the public and assist in building a positive image for extension.

Statewide 4-H Director, University of California 4-H Youth Development Program (4-H YDP), University of California, Division of Agriculture and Natural Resources, September 2015 – August 2019

Responsibilities include:

- Provide visionary leadership to the implementation and evaluation of the University of California 4-H Youth Development Program (YDP). Develop strategic and business plans to support growth and development.
- Develop and manage an annual budget of $5-6 million dollars that includes various fund sources (state and federal funding, endowment payouts, gifts, income, contracts and grants).
- Seek and secure additional resources from revenue-generating programs, grants, endowments, and external fund development. Serve on the 4-H Foundation Board of Directors.
- Recruit, retain, supervise, and ensure growth of 26 tenure-track 4-H and Youth, Families, and Communities Cooperative Extension advisors and five (5) non-tenure-track academic positions.
- Provide leadership to 68 career Cooperative Extension professional staff.
- Develop and implement new staffing models to achieve research and extension goals of the program, Division, and University.
- Lead and coordinate a new staff and academic orientation and other professional development opportunities.
- Attend Department Head meetings and represent the unit internally and with external groups.
- Participate in advocacy efforts and build relationships with political leaders, external stakeholders, and constituencies.
- Work with interdisciplinary teams to address convergent issues affecting the field through research and extension.
- Complete federal, state, university, and other required reporting. Gather and compile data and provide leadership for the development, maintenance, and accuracy of online data collection systems.

Associate Director of 4-H Program and Policy, Youth Families and Communities Statewide Program, University of California, Division of Agriculture and Natural Resources, May 2011 – September 2015

Responsibilities include:

- Develop strategic plans that are consistent with the organization's vision and align with the University's strategic goals.
- Provide visionary leadership and support for the development, coordination, implementation, and evaluation of the Statewide 4-H YDP.

- Provide leadership, develop, and disseminate strategies for building and sustaining engagement of diverse youth, families, and volunteers in the 4-H YDP.
- Develop and manage large multidisciplinary teams to address critical issues facing the 4-H YDP and California's youth, families, and communities.
- Develop new, innovative technologies for educational program development and delivery.
- Manage complex budgets and generate revenue to support team and organizational goals.
- Develop and implement training programs for volunteer and staff development.
- Develop a statewide evaluation and provide leadership to program evaluation.
- Provide leadership to the 12 4-H Advisory Committees and the California 4-H Management Board.
- Provide leadership and oversight of the content for the 4-H YDP, including development and delivery of educational curriculum.
- Supervise and provide leadership, coaching, mentorship, and evaluation to a team of 15 academics and staff in the unit.
- Develop 4-H policies and support implementation statewide.
- Assure the 4-H YDP is in compliance with all federal, state, UC, and 4-H YDP regulations and policies.
- Respond to program and policy inquiries from staff, academics, volunteers, and others.
- Represent 4-H on statewide and national committees. Serve as the liaison and build relationships with various internal and external partners.

4-H Youth Development Advisor, University of California Cooperative Extension, Placer and Nevada Counties, June 2008 – May 2011

Responsibilities include:

- Design, develop, implement, and evaluate community-based educational youth development programs.
- Develop curriculum and educational materials in the areas of positive youth development, science literacy, and health and well-being.
- Extend information through workshops, presentations, trainings, consultations, meetings, newsletters, publications, web pages, and other methods to the community, volunteers, and other clientele.
- Conduct developmental and applied research in the areas of positive youth development, adolescent development, risk prevention/intervention, program evaluation, and research design methodology.
- Communicate and publish research findings in academic and professional journals.
- Identify and secure sources of funding to enhance and expand programming.

- Supervise and provide leadership to county-based 4-H staff in the organization and implementation of the 4-H YDP.
- Build relationships with the County Board of Supervisors, government agencies and other non-profit or educational entities and organizations serving youth.
